

Social Justice Math Study Group Alameda County Office of Education

The Core Learning department at the Alameda County Office of Education is pleased to announce that registration is now open for the 3rd year of the Social Justice Math Study Group. Please distribute widely and consider registering in teams! Registration discount: sign up 3, get one Free.

Join us to investigate how math education can improve outcomes for all of Alameda County's students, especially those who have been most underserved. This is a year-long inquiry-based cycle of workshops for Social Justice educators. From equity-based pedagogical practices, to lessons that integrate social and economic justice issues, Social Justice math educators are provided a space to explore, implement, and refine their work.

Topics include:

- Defining "Social Justice Math"
- Math Literacy as a Justice Issue
- Introducing Social/Economic Justice Issues into the classroom
- Culture and Mathematics: Culturally Responsive Teaching Practices
- Cultural Interactions and Effect on Performance (Stereotype Threat and Microaggressions)
- Language, Equity, and Mathematics
- Culture and Mathematics: Ethnomathematics
